MEDITATION SESSIONS FOR TEACHING AND

NON – TEACHING STAFF

By

Dept. of Swasthavritta and Yoga

"Meditation: the key to a peaceful mind and a healthier life."

Meditation sessions are essential for both teaching and non-teaching staff at KLE Ayurveda Hospital and College as they foster a harmonious and balanced work environment. For the teaching staff, meditation enhances focus, creativity, and patience, enabling them to deliver more effective and engaging lectures. It also helps in managing stress and maintaining emotional well-being, which is crucial for nurturing a positive learning atmosphere. For nonteaching staff, meditation aids in improving concentration, reducing anxiety, and boosting overall job satisfaction, leading to more efficient and pleasant work dynamics. By incorporating regular meditation practices, the entire institution can benefit from improved mental clarity, reduced burnout, and a more cohesive, supportive community, ultimately enhancing the quality of education and healthcare services provided.

Therefore the Dept. of Swasthavritta &Yoga initiated Meditation session for the staff of KLE ShriBMKKankanawadiAyurvedMahavidyalaya on every Thursday from 4.30pm to 5pm started from 4th April 2024 which will be conducted by Mrs. Rashmi Chavan, Yoga Instructor.

Session includes:

- Pranayama: AnulomVilom, Bhramari,
- Focused Meditation
- Om Meditation
- Cyclic Meditation
- Nadanusandhana ('A'kar, 'U'kar, 'M'kar)

Inauguration function of Meditation Session

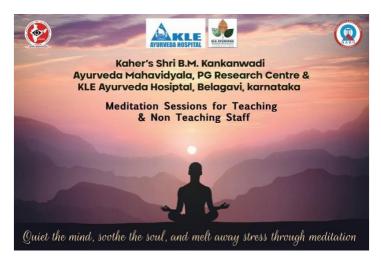

The inauguration function was a special event, graced by Dr.SuhasKumarShetty,Principal&MedicalDirector,

KAHER'sShriBMKKankanawadiAyurvedMahavidyalaya,Dr.AshokPatil,Professor&HODD ept.Swasthavritta&Yoga, Dr. Sandeep Sagare, Reader, Dr. Sanjeev Tonni, Professor,Dr. Suma Rajaput, AssistantProfessor and Mrs. Rashmi Chavan, Yoga Instructor.

Dr. Ashok Patil began the ceremony with a warm and welcoming address. The presence of these highlighted the importance of the occasion and set a positive tone for the future of the institution.

After a warm welcome, the function commenced with the auspicious lamp lighting ceremony by all the dignitaries.

Our beloved Principal, Dr.SuhasKumarShettySir encouraged all participants to actively engage in the meditation sessions. He emphasized the numerous benefits of meditation, including stress reduction, enhanced focus, and overall well-being. By highlighting the positive impact on both personal and professional lives, he inspired everyone to embrace these sessions as a valuable opportunity for self-improvement and community wellness.

8	Activities carried out during the program	KLE College of Physiotherapy in Hubballi, under the initiative of NSS celebrated National Girl Child Day. The event commenced with a warm welcome to all 52 participants, highlighting the importance of celebrating this day. Students put up a powerful Nukkad Natak that creatively portrayed the challenges faced by the girl child and the societal biases they encounter. A series of speeches were delivered in English, Kannada, and Hindi, discussing the significance of the same. The event included interactive sessions where participants could share their thoughts, experiences, and ideas on promoting gender equality. The event served as a reminder of the college's commitment to creating an environment that empowers and supports the girl child, paving the way for a more equitable and inclusive society."
